Craig Bacon is the happily married father of four daughters. He's been the Deputy Niagara County Historian for the past 16 years and was appointed the City of Lockport Historian in January 2021. Introduced to local history by his grandmother, Craig has been obsessed ever since. He began working on his own genealogy as an early teen and just like his ancestors from centuries ago, he remains a fierce and loyal Viking.

Shelley Richards has been retired for almost 4 years from nonprofit management and mental health services which has allowed her to delve into her love of genealogy full bore! She has authored and published 4 books during that time and has completed personal research as well as for other family members and a few friends. Although recently retired from the NCGS board she is staying involved as coordinator of the NCGS Library volunteers and still regularly volunteers there herself.

Pete Ames grew up in Lewiston and has lived in this area all of his life. He has been doing genealogy for 25 years and loves the thrill of the hunt. He was appointed the Town of Niagara Historian in 2016. His work as the Town of Niagara Historian has included organizing a collection of materials and records dating back to 1812. This collection is located in the Marsh/Rolling Local History Room and is available by appointment.
